

WEEKLY NEWS BITES

100% ATTENDANCE PRIZE DRAW

Have you maintained 100% attendance this term? Excellent attendance has a proven impact on final grades, and ensures you achieve your potential.

All students who have maintained 100% attendance will be entered into our end of term prize draw with names drawn at random by our Principal Angela for some fantastic prizes including an iPad mini and vouchers.

Congratulations to all students who have maintained 100% attendance this term, and we look forward to contacting all of the winners - good luck!

Good luck!

EXAMS TIMETABLE

Are you an A2 (Year 13) student studying A Levels? Your mock exam timetable will be available on Cedar on Tuesday 18th December.

Please check your timetable carefully, and ensure you are aware of when your exams will be held.

These are an important part of preparing for your final exams, and a key way we identify any extra help and support you may require.

MATHS FESTIVE CHALLENGES

Week two of our Maths festive brain teasers are now available for solving! See the screens for details, or visit the news section of our website to download the next two puzzles. All correct answers will be entered into a prize draw next week, so remember to email m.webber@huddnewcoll.ac.uk with your answers.

LAST DAY OF TERM

College finishes for Christmas on Thursday 20th December. There will be an early finish for students, with buses departing at 12.45pm. We hope everyone has a restful and enjoyable break!

Don't forget that tomorrow (Friday) is Christmas Jumper day, with a prize for the best/worst jumper!
