

Privacy Notice: Students

Huddersfield New College's data protection vision is to create a culture of protecting privacy and personal data. Personal data is information which 'relates to and identifies a living individual'. Personal data should be adequate, relevant and limited to what is necessary.

Why do we collect and use student information?

We collect and use student information under Article 6 (1) of the General Data Protection Regulation 2018:

(c) processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation to which the controller is subject
(d) processing is necessary in order to protect the vital interests of the data subject

We also collect the information to meet the requirements of the Funding guidance for young people (Funding regulations) published by the Education & Skills Funding Agency which can be found here <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/advice-funding-regulations-for-post-16-provision>

We use student data:

- to support student learning
- to monitor and report on student progress
- to provide appropriate student support, care and guidance
- to assess the quality of our services
- to comply with the law regarding data sharing
- to ensure we meet all statutory requirements of SEND, safeguarding and equality & diversity

We will use the information provided in a manner that conforms with the Data Protection Act 1998, the General Data Protection Regulation 2018 and the Human Rights Act 1998.

We do not undertake any automated decision making.

The College is committed to being transparent about how it collects, uses, stores and deletes data and to meeting its data protection obligations.

Categories of student information that we collect, hold and share include:

- Personal information (such as name, unique learner number and address)
- Characteristics (such as ethnicity, language, nationality, country of birth and free school meal eligibility)
- Attendance information (such as sessions attended, number of absences and absence reasons)
- Relevant medical information, special educational needs information
- Safeguarding information
- Assessment information
- Post-18 destination information
- Pre-16 school behavioural and performance information

Collecting student information

Whilst the majority of student information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it is provided to us on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with the General Data Protection Regulation, we will inform you whether you are required to provide certain student information to us or if you have a choice in this.

Storing student data (Retention period - how long is data held for)

Retention of records is based on the principle that your personal data will not normally be kept for longer than is broadly necessary. The College operates within statutory and best practice timescales for the retention of data. The following timescales all commence from the date a student completes their education at Huddersfield New College as whilst they are a current student, we will hold this information:

- | | |
|---|--------------------------------------|
| ○ Student personal information and characteristics | 3 years |
| ○ UCAS references | 3 years |
| ○ Assessment and attendance data | 3 years* |
| ○ Special educational needs information | 8 years (or until the student is 25) |
| ○ Safeguarding information | 8 years (or until the student is 25) |
| ○ Pre-16 school behavioural and performance information | 1 year |

* Exam certificates - 1 year and an audit log of destruction for a further 4 years

Student consent will always be sought for images used for marketing and social media purposes. A student has the right to withdraw previously given consent at any time by requesting this via our Student Services team. Images will only be held for the duration the student data is held (3 years).

Why we share student information

We do not share information about our students with anyone without consent, unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

We share students' data with the Department for Education (DfE) and the Education & Skills Funding Agency on a statutory basis. This data sharing underpins funding and educational attainment policy and monitoring. We are required to share information about our students with the (DfE) under regulation 5 of The Education (Information about Individual Students) (England) Regulations 2013.

The Department and the Agency have robust processes in place to ensure the confidentiality of our data is maintained and there are stringent controls in place regarding access and use of the data. Decisions on whether DfE releases data to third parties are subject to a strict approval process and based on a detailed assessment of:

- who is requesting the data
- the purpose for which it is required
- the level and sensitivity of data requested: and
- the arrangements in place to store and handle the data

To be granted access to student information, organisations must comply with strict terms and conditions covering the confidentiality and handling of the data, security arrangements and retention and use of the data. For more information about the department's data sharing process, please visit:

<https://www.gov.uk/data-protection-how-we-collect-and-share-research-data>

To contact DfE: <https://www.gov.uk/contact-dfe>

Who do we share student information with?

Privacy Notice: Students

We routinely share student information with:

- Department for Education (DfE)
- Education and Skills Funding Agency
- JCQ and examination boards
- Calderdale and Kirklees Careers Service (destination data)
- Local authority
- 3rd party data processors engaged by HNC for the reasons above

We occasionally share student information with:

- Locala
- Social Services
- Police
- Universities

Otherwise, before sharing information with a third party, we will either obtain your consent or establish that the sharing is necessary (which includes ensuring that the data shared is kept to a minimum), fair and otherwise within the law.

We will not pass your information to third parties for direct marketing purposes.

Data collection requirements

To find out more about the data collection requirements placed on us by the Education & Skills Funding Agency via the 'Individualised Learner Record' please go to <https://www.gov.uk/government/collections/individualised-learner-record-ilr#2017-to-2018-individualised-learner-record-ilr-data>

Our students aged 16+

We will also share certain information about students aged 16+ with the local authority and / or provider of youth support services as they have responsibilities in relation to the education or training of 13-19 year olds under section 507B of the Education Act 1996.

This enables them to provide services as follows:

- post-16 education and training providers
- youth support services
- careers advisers

For more information about services for young people, please visit the local authority website.

For students enrolling for post 16 qualifications, the Learning Records Service will provide us with a student's unique learner number (ULN) and may also provide with us with details about the student's learning or qualifications.

Learning Technologies

We currently use various video methods (conferencing etc.) to enhance the student's leaning experience.

Privacy Notice: Students

This may be lessons or assessment presentations via Skype (or other similar technologies).

Requesting access to your personal data

Under data protection legislation students have the right to request access to information about them that we hold. To make a request for this, please email studentservice@huddnewcoll.ac.uk who will process the request in partnership with Huddersfield New College's Data Protection Officer.

You also have the right to:

- object to processing of personal data that is likely to cause, or is causing, damage or distress
- prevent processing for the purpose of direct marketing
- object to decisions being taken by automated means
- in certain circumstances, have inaccurate personal data rectified, blocked, erased or destroyed
- claim compensation for damages caused by a breach of the Data Protection regulations
- make a subject data access request (please see link on website)

If you have a concern about the way we are collecting or using your personal data, you should raise your concern with us in the first instance, or directly to the Information Commissioner's Office at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>
